To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Erdreich White Fine Art, Inc.

Ladies and Gentlemen

I am pleased to provide this reference for Elizabeth Erdreich White. I am the managing partner of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP's Boston office. In 2003 we moved into our new space, approximately 28,500 square feet in the Fleet Bank building. Our space had been gutted and rebuilt to our specifications, and it was very important to us that our office design be complemented by an appropriate art collection.

We were introduced to Elizabeth by our architects, and I was impressed with her upon our first meeting. She is enthusiastic, energetic, and an excellent listener. She showed us a number of different pieces, thus giving us a good feel for the many options available to us, but never attempted to substitute her own tastes or preferences for ours. On the basis of only two meetings, she understood the look and tone that we were trying to create, and quickly assembled a number of pieces from which we could chose.

I was also very impressed by Elizabeth's practicality. We presented her with a budget, and she was careful to select pieces that fit within our budget. She was also creative and pragmatic in helping us select pieces from a number of different price ranges, rather than merely showing us a number of very expensive pieces. As a result, we were able to select more expensive pieces in more public spaces, and less expensive pieces in those areas of less traffic.

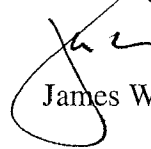

The ultimate validation of Elizabeth's efforts has been apparent from the reaction of those who work in our space, as well as our clients. We have received a number of compliments on our collection from people with very different tastes and preferences.

In conclusion, I would strongly recommend Elizabeth without reservation or qualification. If I can provide any further information, I would be happy to do so.

Sincerely,
